From the former Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings unto the gentle populace of these glorious Outlands from Mistress Coemri nEithne, former Kingdom Seneschal.

At last the much anticipated and long promised newly revised and updated Red Tape Issue is here! It includes current Kingdom Law which was proclaimed on March 18 in Unser Hafen. It also contains updated Charters of Awards...a first to be printed all in one place. The Charters update has been a long process and has involved many, many people. Thank you all!

Also included herein is the revised Administrative Policies of the Outlands. Many of you have worked very hard to help me update these policies. A special thank you to all Kingdom Officers who carefully reviewed their own policies and made changes as needed. Thank you also to Maestra Francesca who penned its first edition and laid the groundwork for what may continue as a fine tradition. My successor, Master Rhys, who is by now Kingdom Seneschal, was instrumentally involved in the updates to the Seneschal policies, and I appreciate his help. You may now refer all your questions to him...

I could go on thanking these good gentles forever, but this Red Tape Issue of the Outlandish Herald would truly not be in your hands without the tireless efforts of The Honorable Lord Duncan, who has managed to fit the publication of an extra issue of the Outlandish Herald in between two regular issues! To Duncan...a huge Huzzah!

In continuing service to the Outlands,

Mistress Coemri nEithne

Production Information

This is issue #170 (Red Tape Issue II (May) 2000) of The Outlandish Herald, the official newsletter of the Kingdom of the Outlands, a branch of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto the grand and glorious Outlands from The Honorable Lord Duncan MacAllister, Kingdom Chronicler.

You have in your hands the second edition of the Red Tape Issue. Enclosed herein is the entirety of Outlands Kingdom Law, the changes that were proclaimed on March 18 to the prior Kingdom Law, the Administrative Handbook with it's new updates, and the charters of every award, Kingdom and Baronial, in the Kingdom of the Outlands as of the press date.

Coupled with the need to get out the "regular issue", this has been quite the daunting task, but one which has, actually, been quite enjoyable. I would like to thank Their Royal Majesties, Martino and Aindrea, for their support, understanding, and constant discussion with me about this issue. Knowing what direction They wanted to go made production infinately simpler. I would also like to thank Mistress Coemri. This is really her baby. She did all the leg work, got me all the changes, updates, originals, etc. so that all I had left was putting it all together.

I sincerely hope that everyone who reads this issue finds it informative, useful, and worth the space it will certainly take up on your shelf. At 84 pages, plus all the inserts, it's a hefty piece of work, but one that should find some use in the days ahead.

One note: Any references to forms within Kingdom Law or the Administrative Handbook are referring to the forms in the center of this publication. For the sake of simplicity, the forms were placed as full page inserts, rather than as 5.5"x8.5" pages within the document. It eliminated the need for photocopy enlargement, as well as a complete reformat of RTI.

The May XXXV (2000) issue of the Outlandish Herald should already be in your possession, and the June XXXV (2000) issue will be not far behind this issue. Thank you, populace, for your support and understanding. May these words help you when you need the answers they contain.

In service to the Outlands,

The Honorable Lord Duncan MacAllister

LAWS OF THE KINGDOM OF THE OUTLANDS

Effective March 18, AS XXXIV (2000)

I. LAWS

A. These Laws may be amended, added to, or deleted by the Crown.

B. All changes to Law must be signed by the Crown.

C. Any change, deletion, or addition shall be proclaimed at Court at a published S.C.A. event within the kingdom of the Outlands and shall become effective as soon as it is signed and proclaimed as described above. It must then be published in the Outlandish Herald in the earliest possible issue to become law. No subject shall be considered to be breaking a new law until that law is signed, proclaimed at an SCA event and published in the Kingdom newsletter.

D. Any changes to the Laws shall be reviewed by the Kingdom Seneschal who will ensure that the Laws are consistent with Corpora and will witness the document.

II. RIGHTS, DUTIES, AND PRIVILEGES OF THE CROWN

A. The Crown of the Outlands hereinafter referred to as "the Crown" shall consist of the positions of Sovereign and Consort held by the King and Queen. All references to "Successors" shall be deemed to refer to the Heirs to the Throne of the Outlands and shall consist of the positions of Crown Prince and Crown Princess.

B. The Crown must continue to reside within the boundaries of the Kingdom throughout their tenure both as Successors to the Crown and for the duration of their Reign. Failure to do so shall be considered as forfeiture of the Reign for the one, or both, living outside the Kingdom.

C. Early in the Reign the Crown shall, with the assistance of their Seneschal, set the sites of the Crown Tournament and Coronation to choose and invest their successors.

D. The Crown shall maintain a regular means of quick communication and dependable transportation.

E. The Crown shall confer awards upon individuals. Only members of the S.C.A. may receive armigerous awards. No award, whether armigerous or not, may be conferred upon a subject of any realm outside the Kingdom of the Outlands without the prior written consent of the Crown to whom the individual is subject.

F. The Crown shall call courts as may be necessary for the governance of the Kingdom. The primary purpose of any such court is for investigation of questions and issues, for opening communication on issues and for the clarification of issues (see Section X.)

G. The Crown shall review the status and welfare of each barony and take appropriate action as necessary.

H. The Presence of the Crown shall be ten (10) feet around their Persons or their thrones. No one may enter this area without rendering courtesy as is right and proper.

I. The Crown sets the Order of the March for their Courts and for Kingdom events.

J. It shall be presumed that all persons who complete a full reign as Crown of the Outlands have met the requirements for elevation to the peerage. The granting of Royal Peerage shall therefore be accompanied by a Patent of Arms. Any Peer who wishes to rebut this assumption may petition the Successors prior to the granting of the Patent.

K. Each Consort shall be admitted into the Order of the Rose at the end of his/her first full reign. Companionship in the Order of the Rose shall carry neither arms nor precedence and an individual may be admitted only once.

L. The Crown shall file with the White Stag Principal Herald and Kingdom Chronicler a list of all awards given during the reign.

III. SELECTION OF ROYALTY

A. The rules of the crown lists shall be the Rules of the Lists and the Kingdom fighting conventions, as approved by the Sovereign of the Kingdom in consultation with the Earl Marshall.

B. Prospective entrants and consorts shall present themselves before the Crown on the day of the Crown Lists. The entrants shall state their intent to win the Crown of the Outlands. Emergency absence of the prospective consort may be considered by the Crown on a case-by-case basis.

C. To be eligible for the Crown Lists, the entrant and prospective consort must meet all of the following requirements in addition to those stated in Corpora:

1. Be acceptable to the Sovereign.
2. Be at least eighteen (18) years of age by the scheduled Coronation.
3. Have resided within the boundaries of the Outlands for the six (6) consecutive months immediately prior to the day of the Crown Lists.
4. Have regular means of quick communication, dependable transportation, and sufficient income to support the Crown should they win.
5. Be knowledgeable of the structure and laws of the Kingdom of the Outlands and the Society.
6. The entrant must be an authorized fighter of good standing.
7. Be current members of the Society for Creative Anachronism as evidenced by proof from the Registrar.
8. Entrant must swear the Sword Oath.
9. The Sword Oath must include affirmation that the entrant and consort fulfill all requirements for entry into Crown Tournament and that they will maintain themselves in an honorable manner during the tournament.
10. Consort must be prepared to swear an oath at the Crown's discretion.

D. The Sovereign may remove any fighter from the field should, in the opinion of the Sovereign, the fighter's conduct be unchivalrous. The Sovereign should take consultation with the marshals before removing any fighter from the Lists.

E. An entrant, or prospective consort, may petition the Crown to be allowed to withdraw at any time. If a prospective consort is allowed to withdraw, the entrant who carries that person's favor is thereby disqualified.

IV. SUCCESSION OF THE CROWN

A. The Crown Successors of the Outlands shall be crowned according to the customs of the land.

B. Should either Successor, through no personal fault, be unable to attend the Coronation such steps as seem necessary and which are acceptable to both the Successors and the Crown shall be taken so that he/she may achieve the Crown.

C. The Crown shall call a Curia Regis should either of the Crown Successors fail to appear and there is sufficient evidence to suggest that this failure was through personal malfeasance Should the decision of the Crown at the Curia Regis be that the Crown Successor failed to appear through personal malfeasance, a Court of Inquiry shall be called.

D. If the prospective Sovereign shall abdicate or be disqualified, the Crown shall call a new Crown Tournament as soon as one may reasonably and legally be announced and published to the populace This shall determine a new couple to be invested as Crown Prince and Princess at the court following the list. The abdicated/disqualified prospective Sovereign may not participate in this tournament. If the prospective Consort shall abdicate or be disqualified, the prospective or new Sovereign shall choose a new Consort who meets the qualifications as stated in Section III.C.

E. Should the Crown refuse to yield the regalia to the Crown Prince and Princess in a reasonable time, the matter shall be brought before the Board of Directors for their adjudication. Should the Board overrule the Crown, then the Crown shall surrender all of the regalia to the Crown Prince and Princess at the earliest available event acceptable to all parties Should the Board rule with the Crown, the Crown Prince and Princess shall be disqualified, and the procedures listed above shall be followed.

V. PROVISION FOR THE ABSENCE OF THE SOVEREIGN AND/OR CONSORT

A. If, at any time and for any reason, the Sovereign and Consort are unable to complete their reign, the duties of the Sovereign shall revert to the most recent Sovereign willing and qualified to serve as Regent. To be qualified, the Regent must be a paid member, reside within the Kingdom, and have dependable transportation and means of quick communication. The regency shall not be considered a reign and the Regent shall not bestow or approve awards nor proclaim Law.

B. If a Crown Prince and Crown Princess have not already been determined, the Regent shall ensure scheduling of the Crown Lists as soon as may be reasonably and legally proclaimed and shall exercise the authority of the Sovereign in managing the Lists. Investiture of the new Sovereign and Consort shall take place at the closing court following the Lists.

C. In the event there is no Consort, the Sovereign shall choose a new qualified Consort and shall serve out the remainder of the reign.

D. In the event there is no Sovereign, the Consort shall assume the duties, rights, and responsibilities of the Sovereign upon investing a new qualified Consort and shall serve out the remainder of the reign. In this event, however, the Kingdom Earl Marshall shall supervise the fighting on the field.

E. The new Consort's investiture must be performed at a published Society event.

F. Until the new Consort is invested, the remaining King/Queen shall have only the powers of a Regent.

G. Abdication or disqualification of the Sovereign or the Consort does not constitute a full reign for that party. This disallows the right to County or Ducal titles which may have been forthcoming from his or her reign.

VI. EVENTS

A. The second weekend of every month is reserved for Kingdom events.

B. Crown Tournament will be held on the second weekend of March and the second weekend of September.

C. Coronation will be held on the second weekend of May and the second weekend of November.

D. There will be a Queen's Champion tournament on the weekend of Coronation.

1. All prospective entrants must be acceptable to the Queen.
2. The Victor of the Lists will be styled "The Queen's Champion".
3. The specifics of the list shall be determined by the Queen.

E. There will be a Queen's Rapier Champion tournament on the weekend of Coronation.

1. All prospective entrants must be acceptable to the Queen.
2. The Victor of the Lists will be styled "The Protector of the Queen's Heart".
3. The specifics of the List shall be determined by the Queen.

F. There shall be a Kingdom Arts and Sciences event each year to be held the second weekend of October. The event shall be organized by the Kingdom Arts and Sciences officer.

G. There shall be at least one "Warlord of the Outlands" tournament each calendar year. The tournament shall be organized according to the wishes of the Sovereign. The person who wins the tournament shall bear the title "Warlord of the Outlands" until the next Warlord tournament. The title shall carry such precedence and honor as is the pleasure of the Crown to give.

H. There shall be at least one "Royal Archer of the Outlands" contest for target archery held each calendar year. The contest shall be organized according to the wishes of the Sovereign. The person who wins the tournament shall bear the title "Royal Archer of the Outlands" until the next Royal Archer tournament. The title shall carry such precedence and honor as is the pleasure of the Crown to give.

VII. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE POPULACE

A. Any subject has the right to display the Kingdom ensign at any Society event.

B. Any subject of the Crown may write to the Crown on any matter. All official communication must be in writing, signed and dated.

C. Reasonable care shall be taken that blatant mundanities are not in obvious display at events.

D. Only persons who are current members of the Society for Creative Anachronism, are authorized or are allowed to be authorized to participate in combat activities within the Kingdom of the Outlands.

VIII. OFFICES AND OFFICERS

A. Officers must live within the recognized boundaries of the area they serve.

B. Regular, routine reports of Kingdom Officers to their superiors shall be copied to the Crown and the Kingdom Seneschal.

C. All officers shall generate written reports to their superiors and subordinates at least quarterly. Omission of one quarterly report shall be considered grounds for suspension or dismissal.

D. The Great Officers of State shall be the Kingdom Seneschal, the White Stag Principal Herald, the Earl Marshal, the Minister of Arts and Sciences, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Chronicler, and the Chirurgeon.

E. All Great Officers of State shall:

1. Fulfill their duties as outlined in Corpora.
2. Make contact with the Crown and the Kingdom Seneschal at least once every month by any communications method that is convenient and appropriate.
3. Maintain a current roster of subordinate officers.
4. Maintain correspondence and a record of all activities carried on in the performance of their duties which is to be turned over to the successor to said office within thirty (30) days of relinquishment of office.

F. The Lesser Officers of State shall be the Kingdom Hospitaller, the Marshal of Fence Marshall, the Archer General, the Equestrian Marshal, the Chamberlain, the Scribe, the Minister of Lists and the Minister of Children.

G. All Lesser Officers of State shall:

1. Be responsible to a Great Officer of State.
2. Make contact with their corresponding Great Officer of State at least once every month by any communications method that is convenient and appropriate.

d. Maintain the Waterbearer's guild of the Outlands.

8. Local Officers shall:

a. Make contact with their corresponding Kingdom Officers of State at least once every month by any communication method which is convenient and appropriate.

IX Territorial Barons and Baronesses

A. Appointment

1. The Crown shall solicit recommendations for the office of Territorial Baron/ess, whenever it is necessary. The office may be filled by a couple or by a single person.

2. At an event published in the Kingdom newsletter, the populace shall be polled regarding selection of new nobility. The Kingdom Seneschal or his/her representative shall be present to witness said polling.

3.Comments by the populace must be considered by the Crown before the Crown makes the final decision of appointment (see Corpora VI.B.1.a.).

B. Removal

1.To consider the removal of a Baron/ess, the Crown shall direct the local seneschal to call a duly advertised meeting of the populace. The Crown shall be in attendance to hear the comment of the populace and to present the views of the Crown.

2.Subsequent to this meeting, comments by the populace must be submitted in writing to be considered by the Crown. The Crown will allow at least two weeks for the communication of such comments before the Crown announces the final decision of retention or removal.

C. Rights, Duties, and Privileges

The Territorial Baron/ess shall:

1. Be, for the people of the barony, the chief example(s) of chivalry, courtesy, and virtue appropriate to gentle men and women and promote these virtues in their people;
2. Represent, and be an advocate for, the people of the barony before the Crown;
3. Extend hospitality and welcome to new and prospective members;
4. Petition the Crown for the privilege of awarding any of their barony's armigerous or precedence advancing awards to residents of their baronies. Nonarmigerous baronial awards do not convey precedence and may be awarded at the pleasure of the Barons and/or Baronesses to residents of their baronies. Presentation of baronial awards to non-residents of the barony requires the permission of the Crown.

X. COURTS AND CURIAS

A. The courts of the Kingdom shall consist of the Curia Regis, Court of Inquiry, and the Court of Chivalry.

B. These courts are Society functions and are to be held at Society events within the Kingdom.

C. The Curia Regis:

1. Shall be organized and conducted at the pleasure of the Crown for the purpose of dispute resolution and arbitration. At the conclusion of the session, the Crown, mindful of the recommendation of the Curia, shall determine the best course of action. The Crown may authorize a representative to conduct the Curia Regis in Their stead. The Crown may invite as many participants for the Curia Regis as They deem fit.
2. May be called at any Society event.
3. May make one of the following recommendations:
    a. Issue shall be dropped
    b. Issue shall be dealt with informally
    c. Issue shall be taken to a Court of Inquiry

D. The Court of Inquiry shall:

1. Be comprised of those persons appointed by the Crown after consultation with the principals involved;
2. Be conducted as formally or informally as the Crown desires;
3. Be published in the Outlandish Herald as a Society event.

E. The Court of Chivalry shall:

1. Be the Kingdom's highest court. It is the only court which may recommend the degradation from the peerage or banishment from the S.C.A. to the Crown and then to the Board of Directors.
2. Not be called on any matter unless a Court of Inquiry has so recommended. In no case is the Crown compelled to call a Court of Chivalry based upon that recommendation.
3. Not be convened until all parties to the dispute, all members of the court, and the Board of Directors have been notified of the upcoming Court of Chivalry and its cause.

Date and location will be decided by the Crown taking into consideration the convenience of all concerned;

4. To be announced in the Outlandish Herald as a Society event;
5. Be held publicly;
6. Have the Kingdom Seneschal, with the Crown in attendance, preside over the Court;
7. Have nine judges who are members of the S.C.A., five of which must be the Kingdom Seneschal (as the presiding judge), Earl Marshall, and the Premiers of the Order of Chivalry, Laurel, and Pelican. If any of the above judges cannot attend, they will choose replacements from within their officers or Orders to represent them. The Crown shall appoint four armigerous representatives to complete the Court. No principal involved in the dispute may sit on the Court;
    a. The premiers of the orders shall be defined as those who have held their peerages for the longest period of time.
8. Have the White Stag Herald, or representative, as the recording officer of the Court, and he/she will be responsible for any physical evidence presented;
9. Be dissolved by a two-thirds majority of the judges;
10. Have any decision and recommended sentence be rendered by a two-thirds majority of the judges. A verdict reached by the two-thirds is binding on the Crown. The Crown may either follow the Court's recommended sentence or may choose another.
11. Render the charges and specifications "not proven" should the court fail to reach a two-thirds majority for a verdict;
12. Have its decisions and the Crown's judgment placed before the Board of Directors if the person sentenced wishes to appeal. If there is an appeal, the Crown has the option to withhold sentence until after the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

F. In order to insure that the courts are fair and representative of the facts, the principals to the dispute have the right to cross-examine witnesses, introduce evidence, and in general, present their case.

XI. OTHER BRANCHES

A. Other branches are shires, cantons, and colleges.
B. Colleges may be inactive for up to three consecutive months as they are normally associated with a mundane college or university.
C. Proposed subsidiary branches shall be styled "incipient" until they have been advanced to official status.
D. Petitions for advancement must be submitted to the Kingdom Seneschal who will then solicit recommendations from the appropriate Kingdom Officers. The Kingdom Seneschal will attach these recommendations and his/her own recommendation to the petition. This packet will then be sent to the Crown for their approval. Approval, if granted, will be proclaimed at an official event and printed in the Outlandish Herald. Official status shall be dated as of the proclamation.
E. Subsidiary branches officers must establish communications with their appropriate superior officers.

Signed this 18th day of March, Anno Societatis XXXIV, being 2000 Gregorian.

Martino, King of the Outlands
Aindrea, Queen of the Outlands

Coemri, Seneschal of the Outlands

Changes to Kingdom Law as changed by TRM Martino and Aindrea

LAWS OF THE KINGDOM OF THE OUTLANDS (Changes Only)

Effective March 18, A.S. XXXIV [34] (2000)

Additions, changes, and deletions will be noted and read. A copy of new Kingdom Law and prior Kingdom Law is available at the Troll table for your information. These laws will be published in the Red Tape Issue of the Outlandish Herald.

I. LAWS

C. Restate the first two sentences as:

"Any change, deletion, or addition shall be proclaimed at Court at a published S.C.A. event within the kingdom of the Outlands and shall become effective as soon as it is signed and proclaimed as described above. It must then be published in the Outlandish Herald in the earliest possible issue to become law."

II. RIGHTS, DUTIES, AND PRIVILEGES OF THE CROWN

A. Restate the first sentence as:

"The Crown of the Outlands hereinafter referred to as "the Crown" shall consist of the positions of Sovereign and Consort held by the King and Queen."

G. Delete:
"All entrants and consorts with registered arms must display their arms during the tournament as follows: The entrant's arms must be prominently displayed on the field (e.g. shield, surcoat, or tabard); the prospective consort's arms must be prominently displayed at the side of the field (e.g. on a banner, standard, or article of clothing.)"

XI. SUCESSION OF THE CROWN

Restate IV. A F as:
"IV. A. The Crown Successors of the Outlands shall be crowned according to the customs of the land.
B. Should either Successor, through no personal fault, be unable to attend the Coronation, such steps as seem necessary and which are acceptable to both the Successors and the Crown shall be taken so that he/she may achieve the Crown.
C. The Crown shall call a Curia Regis should either of the Crown Successors fail to appear and there is sufficient evidence to suggest that this failure was through personal malfeasance. Should the decision of the Crown at the Curia Regis be that the Crown Successor failed to appear through personal malfeasance, a Court of Inquiry shall be called. "

Restate IV H. as:

'IV. E. Should the Crown refuse to yield the regalia to the Crown Prince and Princess in a reasonable time, the matter shall be brought before the Board of Directors for their adjudication. Should the Board overrule the Crown, then the Crown shall surrender all of the regalia to the Crown Prince and Princess at the earliest available event acceptable to all parties. Should the Board rule with the Crown, the Crown Prince and Princess shall be disqualified, and the procedures listed above shall be followed.'

VI EVENTS

Add: 'A. The second weekend of every month is reserved for Kingdom events."

Re-letter A G to B H.

Outlands Administrative Policies

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM OF THE OUTLANDS

MARCH 2000 AS XXXIIII

I. GENERAL

A. The Kingdom of the Outlands and its populace members will comply with all rules and standards set forth in the SCA's governing documents and the Laws of the Kingdom of the Outlands, and with all laws of the United States of America and the particular states and jurisdictions in which we operate. Individuals who violate these laws and rules, including those regarding alcohol or illegal substances, while in attendance at any SCA-sponsored activity will be reported to the appropriate authorities and will be subject to sanctions within the SCA.

B. Any and all members of the populace are encouraged to recommend individuals for awards.

1. One need not be a member of an order to recommend someone else for that order. In fact, one need not have any awards at all to recommend someone for an award.

2. Letters of Recommendation should be mailed directly to the Crown.

3. In order to receive any award, Kingdom Law requires the recipient to be a paid member of the SCA.

II. WAIVER POLICY

A. Any person attending any SCA event, or participating in fighting activities at a fighter practice, must either be a paid member of the SCA, with proof of membership (a "blue card"), or must sign a waiver. A copy of the approved waiver is included as Appendix A. Please copy this form and all other forms included in the Appendices freely.

B. SCA members who do not have their "blue cards" with them, or who have a non-blue membership card, indicating that there is no signed waiver on file for them in the SCA Corporate Office, must sign a waiver to attend an event or participate in fighting activities at a fighter practice.

C. Waivers may be completed individually, or a roster waiver may be used. A roster-type waiver must include the full text of the waiver with absolutely no changes. In this case, there will be space for many signatures under the waiver text, which will be reduced in size. List the event name and date at the top, and use two columns for signing - printed name on the left, signature on the right. Only modern names are to appear on the waiver. Waivers may re-typed as long as the wording is not changed in even the slightest way.

D. It is the responsibility of the local Seneschal, in cooperation with the local Knight Marshal, to ensure that waiver policies are adhered to at all fighter practices and for the fighting at any event held within their group's area.

E. It is the responsibility of the local Seneschal to ensure that waiver policies are adhered to at all events held within the group's area. These policies must be clearly communicated to anyone who will be manning the "trollbooth" at any event.

F. All signed waivers are to be collected and given to the local Seneschal. The Seneschal will then send all such waivers directly to the SCA Corporate Office in Milpitas, California. Waivers should be sent to Milpitas on a monthly basis.

III. PARTICIPATION BY MINORS

Minors (persons under 18 years of age) are welcome to participate in the activities of the SCA, subject to the following rules:

A. Any minor attending an SCA event must have a Minor Waiver -- "Minor's Consent to Participate and Hold Harmless Agreement" (Appendix B) completed and signed by their his/her parent or legal guardian. A separate waiver is needed for each event the minor attends. This policy is in effect even if the minor is in attendance with his/her parent(s), and regardless of whether or not the minor is a paid SCA member. Roster waivers are not acceptable for use with minors. It is suggested that groups make copies of the minor waiver form on colored paper to easily distinguish them from adult waivers.

B. Minor waivers need not be executed at fighter practices, unless the minor is participating in fighting activities. "Fighting activities" include armored combat ("heavy weapons"), fencing, combat archery, or marshalling. In this case, parents should be carefully apprised of what is going on. Governing & Policy Decision #12 (see "Corpora", pg. 32), section 5, requires that parents witness the activity, discuss it with a witnessing marshal, and execute a Parent's Consent for SCA Combat-Related Activities (that is, a minor waiver Appendix B). Witnessing marshals must be explicitly authorized to perform this function by the Kingdom Earl Marshal. Authorization for combat in any of the forms listed above by minors can be performed only by the Kingdom Earl Marshal, with the exception of rapier combat, which must be authorized by the Kingdom Rapier Marshal.

C. Any adult taking a minor to an event which will involve an overnight stay, which will cross state lines, or which is sufficiently distant that the parent would not be able to meet that adult at the hospital in the event of an emergency, must obtain a form (Statement of Guardianship) designating them as the minor's temporary legal guardian for the duration of the event. This form must be signed by the minor's parent(s) or legal guardian, and must be notarized. The form is included as Appendix C.

D. Minors may not attend camping events unless accompanied by a responsible adult - a parent, legal guardian, or a temporary legal guardian appointed as described above.

E. Again, from G&PD #12: Any minor involved in SCA combat-related activities at an event MUST have a parent or legal guardian present at the event, or be in possession of a properly-executed Statement of Guardianship (Appendix C) which designates that person to be able authorize medical treatment for that minor in case of any emergency."

F. No minor may consume alcohol or use illegal substances at any SCA event or practice. No adult may offer alcohol or illegal substances to a minor at any event or practice. Anyone found violating these laws will be ejected from the site, and may be subject to other action.

G. It is the responsibility of the local Seneschal, in cooperation with the local Knight Marshal, to ensure that minor policies are adhered to at all fighter practices and for the fighting at any event held within their group's area.

H. It is the responsibility of the local Seneschal to ensure that minor policies are adhered to at all events held within the group's area. These policies must be clearly communicated to anyone who will be manning the "trollbooth" at any event.

I. All signed minor waivers are to be collected and given to the local Seneschal. The Seneschal will then send all such waivers directly to the SCA Corporate Office in Milpitas, California. Waivers should be sent to Milpitas on a monthly basis.

IV. AUTHORIZATION FOR COMBAT-RELATED ACTIVITIES AND NON-COMBATANTS

A. All participants in SCA combat activities ("heavy weapons" combat, fencing, combat archery, and marshaling) must be authorized in accordance with the policies established by the SCA, Inc. and the Earl Marshal's office. Authorized persons are issued an authorization card ("green card"), which must be presented upon the request of a lists officer or marshal. Note that Outlands Kingdom Law requires SCA membership for authorization.

B. Other participants in tournament activities - lists officers, field heralds, waterbearers, and chirurgeons - need not be formally authorized to participate in these activities. They must, however, be SCA members with a valid "blue card", or they must sign a waiver. Chirurgeons and waterbearers fall within the Chirurgeonate and are also subject to the policies of the Kingdom Chirurgeon. These non-combatants are subject to the direction of the marshals on the field and are required to follow their directives regarding activities on the field.

C. Non-combatant participants in Wars - field heralds, waterbearers, and chirurgeons - are required to be authorized for this activity. Authorization cards will be issued through the Earl Marshal's office. In order to qualify for such authorization, an individual must undergo a brief training session by an authorizing marshal or by an authorized War Field Herald, Waterbearer or Chirurgeon, as appropriate.

V. SCHEDULING OF EVENTS

A. All event autocrats must be paid members in good standing of the SCA. All events must be sponsored by an official group.

1. Incipient groups wishing to hold an event must be sponsored by an official group.
2. Households wishing to host an event must be sponsored by an official SCA group in order for the event to be an SCA-sanctioned event.

B. An Event Registration form is included as Appendix D.

1. This form must be completed and signed by the local Seneschal and a second officer. In a Barony, the second signature must be that of the Baron or Baroness.

2. This form is necessary for all events which are to be listed on the Official Kingdom Calendar and/or be advertised in the Outlandish Herald.

3. A copy should be retained for the group's Seneschal, the Autocrat, and the Baron/ess if within the jurisdiction of a Barony.

4. One copy of the completed form is to be sent directly to the Deputy Kingdom Seneschal in charge of the Calendar. Forms can be mailed or faxed. Please do not send via email. You will receive acknowledgment from the Assistant Seneschal that your form has been received. Copies ARE NOT to be sent to the Kingdom Seneschal.

5. The third and final copy of the form is to be sent to the Kingdom Chronicler along with the event announcement to be published in the Outlandish Herald. See "Policies of the Kingdom Chronicler" for more information about event announcements.

C. The second full weekend of each month are reserved for Kingdom events.

1. No other events may appear in the Outlandish Herald for Kingdom Weekends without the prior approval of the Kingdom Seneschal.

2. A Kingdom Event Bid Form is included as Appendix E. This form is to be completed instead of the Event Registration form for Kingdom Event bids, and must be signed as explained in B.1. above.

a. Bids for Crown Tournaments, Coronations, Arts & Sciences Events, or other proposed Kingdom events (Queen's Prize Tournament, Stag's Con, etc.) are to be submitted to the Kingdom Seneschal, the Kingdom Calendar Deputy, and the Crown.

b. Bids for Kingdom Arts and Sciences Events should also be sent to the Kingdom Arts and Sciences officer.

3. Retain at least two copies of your Bid Form. One is for your group's files; the another is to send to the Kingdom Chronicler if your bid is accepted. At that time, copies should be made for the Autocrat, Baron/ess (if applicable), and the Kingdom Event Coordinator.

4. The deadline for receiving bids for Crown Tournaments and Coronations is the 15th of the month, six months before the event date: (The deadline may be extended by the Kingdom Seneschal)

March Crown bids are due September 15
May Coronation bids are due November 15
September Crown bids are due March 15
October Arts & Sciences Competition bids are due April 15
November Coronation bids are due May 15
Etc

5. Ideally, Crown Tournaments and Coronations will alternate between the Northern and Southern portions of the Kingdom, the division line being defined as Raton Pass. The desired schedule, which is designed to take advantage of the usual weather conditions in the different parts of the Realm, is as follows:

March Crown - South
May Coronation - North
September Crown - North
November Coronation - South

D. There is a Planning Calendar maintained on the Outlands Webpage. This is NOT an Official calendar, but does list those events which have been designated by the Seneschal's office as official, as well as potential events. It is a planning tool to aid groups in planning their events to avoid conflict.

1. Listing on the Planning Calendar does NOT replace sending an event form, which is necessary to have an event listed on the Official Calendar.

2. To list an event on the Planning Calendar, send as much information as you have concerning the event (name of event, date, sponsoring group; and, if available, the name and telephone number of the autocrat) to the Kingdom Seneschal.

3. The Planning Calendar should be distributed monthly to all local Seneschals.

VI. POLICIES APPLYING TO OFFICERS

A. All Lesser Kingdom Officers or Deputies to Kingdom Officers report to their Kingdom Superior as required by that Officer or at least quarterly.

B. All local officers must provide a copy of their monthly, bi-monthly, or quarterly written reports to their local Seneschal, who must retain them in the Seneschal's files.

C. All local officers must retain a copy of their monthly or quarterly reports for the files of their own office.

D. Local Marshals of Fence, Captains of Archers, and Equestrian Marshals must also give a copy of their reports to the local Knight Marshal, who must retain these in the files of their office.

E. The local Treasurer must provide a copy of the bank statement(s) for the group's bank account(s) to the local Seneschal each month. The Kingdom Chancellor of the Exchequer must provide copies of the bank statement(s) for the Kingdom's account(s) to the Kingdom Seneschal monthly.

F. Local officers will be considered "acting" until they have successfully filed three reports within a four-month period, unless otherwise specified below. The officer will then be warranted for a two-year term, dating from the month they took office.

G. Omission of three consecutive monthly reports, or one quarterly report, will be considered grounds for possible suspension or removal from office.

H. Domesday reports are due by the 15th of January each year or as specified by the appropriate Kingdom superior. This report should summarize the office's activity for the preceding year. Consult the appropriate Kingdom superior for detailed instructions on completing this report.

I. All officers at all levels must recruit and train an "emergency" (sometimes called "drop dead") deputy who can assume the duties of the office in the event of an emergency.

J. It is expected that all officers will attend their local group's business meeting each month unless an emergency prevents attendance. In the event an officer will miss a meeting, that officer should be sure to get a copy of their written report to the local Seneschal in advance of the meeting so that the report may be communicated to the other officers and to the populace.

K. The Seneschal is in charge of running group business meetings. In the event the Seneschal must miss a meeting, his or her deputy should be notified, and that individual should then run the meeting.

L. Local Chroniclers should provide complimentary copies of their newsletters to the Crown, the Kingdom Chronicler, the Kingdom Seneschal, and the Calendar Deputy.

M. Change of officers should follow this procedure:

1. Current officer writes to Kingdom Officer indicating his/her desire to step down from Office and designating another person to take the position.

2. Designated successor writes to Kingdom Officer indicating a willingness and desire to hold that office. Include in that letter a short introduction, age of the person, a brief history of the person's experience in the SCA, and the skills the person has to fulfill the obligations of the office. Also send a copy of the membership card.

3. A letter from the local seneschal should accompany, or follow separately, the successor's letter indicating a willingness of the group to accept this person in the office. In the case of a Barony, the approval of the Baron/ess should also be included.

4. If there is any concern about the designated successor, the Kingdom Officer will contact the officer wishing to step down and the local seneschal.

5. The Kingdom Officer may verify Baronial approval and should there be disagreement, will work with the Baron/ess, local seneschal, and local officer to resolve the situation.

6. In either the case of #4 or #5, the Kingdom Officer will notify the Kingdom Seneschal of the difficulty.

7. Within a short period of time, the Kingdom Officer will contact the local officer with a welcome and any specific requirements of the office.

8. Remember that the local appointment is made by the Kingdom Officer.

VII. POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM SENESCHAL

A. Local Seneschals are required to report in writing once each month to the Kingdom Seneschal. These reports are due no later than the 15th of the month following that which the report covers (that is, reports for the month of May are due in the Kingdom Seneschal's hands no later than June 15). Very small shires with low activity levels may report bimonthly or quarterly by special arrangement with the Kingdom Seneschal on a case-by-case basis.

B. Mailed written reports are preferred, but emailed reports are acceptable, as long as they are not sent as attachments.

C. Local Seneschals will be considered "acting" until they have successfully filed three reports within a four-month period. The officer will then be warranted for a two-year term, dating from the month they took office.

D. Omission of three consecutive reports will be considered grounds for possible suspension or removal from office.

E. The Kingdom Seneschal shall report monthly to the local Seneschals and to the Kingdom Officers and Ruling Nobles of the Kingdom. These reports will be mailed no later than the fifth of each month.

F. The Seneschal's Handbook (currently in the process of revision) is available from the Kingdom Seneschal or on the Outlands Webpage.

G. POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM HOSPITALLER

1. This officer is a clearinghouse of information for local Groups, and specifically Hospitallers, to use in welcoming new members to the Society.

   a. Reporting: formal reports are required quarterly. In addition, each local Hospitaller should make informal contact monthly with the Kingdom Hospitaller (colleges are allowed to be dormant for the summer months).

2. Should a group not have a designated local Hospitaller, its Seneschal will assume that responsibility

3. Each local Hospitaller should send a copy of their new member packets, brochures, PR pieces, and any other applicable information to the Kingdom Hospitaller. For approval.

4. The Kingdom Hospitaller will report to the local groups at least quarterly to share information and ideas.

H. POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM MINISTER OF CHILDREN

1. This officer is a clearinghouse of information for local Groups, and specifically Ministers of Children, to use in planning appropriate children's activities.

a. Reporting: For groups having Ministers of Children: Formal reports are required quarterly. In addition, each local Minister of Children should make informal contact with the Kingdom Minister of Children as needed.

b. The Minister of Children will report to the local groups at least quarterly to share information and ideas.

VIII. POLICIES OF THE WHITE STAG PRINCIPAL HERALD

A. REPORTING: Local Heralds must file reports at least quarterly. Monthly reporting is preferred. If there is no activity in the office, a simple postcard stating such is acceptable. Mailing of reports is strongly encouraged, but emailed reports are acceptable.

B. Domesday reports should include an inventory of the heraldic files, research materials, and regalia that are the property of the local group.

C. Court reports list all awards given in a Kingdom or Baronial Court. The Court Herald in charge must file such a report within three weeks after the Court in question was held. This report is to be filed with the Wimble Herald and copied to the Kingdom Scribe, whose addresses are listed on the Officers' page of the Outlandish Herald. A copy of this report should be retained in the Herald's files. White Stag does NOT need to receive a copy of this report.

D. The Outlands Herald's Handbook is available from the White Stag Principal Herald.

E. Submission fees are $10.00 for each item. An item is defined as a name, a device, or a badge. The submitter should pay this fee to the local group. The local group should keep $1.00 to cover the costs of the local Herald's office, sending $9.00 on to the Kingdom level. The local Treasurer, in turn, should then write a check from the local group's account made payable to "SCA - Outlands" for the submission fees due to the Kingdom.

F. When submitting a name, the White Stag Principal Herald (or Rampart Herald, if that office is handling submissions) must receive three (3) copies of the name submission form and of all documentation. When submitting a device or badge, White Stag (or Rampart) must receive three colored-in copies and one line drawing (not a black and white copy of the colored-in drawing). In addition, the local herald should keep one colored-in copy and one line drawing of each device or badge submission and one copy of each name form and all documentation. The submitter, too, should keep a copy of everything for him/herself.

G. Computer-generated forms are acceptable, provided they accurately recreate the current form standards.

H. All heraldic submissions MUST go through the herald of the submitter's local group unless the submitter is explicitly asked to do otherwise. Submissions should NOT be sent to White Stag directly by a submitter. The herald who actually assisted the submitter in designing a device or documenting a name may sign the forms as "consulting herald".

I. POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM SCRIBE

1. The Scribe keeps a roster of active scribes and is in charge of scroll assignments for awards to be given by the Crown. This roster is strictly unofficial, but serves as a means of getting in touch with scribes around the Kingdom. Contact the Kingdom Scribe to be added to the list of active scribes.

2. The Scribe, in conjunction with the White Stag Principal Herald, is responsible for creating standard scroll texts, and for approving variant scroll text. Any scribe who wishes to use a scroll text other than the standard text must contact the Kingdom Scribe for approval before beginning work.

3. All scribes must maintain strict confidentiality concerning their scroll assignments. Failure to maintain confidentiality on the part of a Baronial Scribe (a Baronial office) may be considered grounds for removal from office. Failure to maintain confidentiality on the part of any scribe will result in that scribe not receiving more scroll assignments.

IX. POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM CHRONICLER

A. Event announcements sent to the Kingdom Chronicler for publication in the Outlandish Herald must be:

1. accompanied or followed by a properly completed Event Registration form

2. checked for completeness and accuracy by the Seneschal of the sponsoring group

3. not written in a way that presents the Society in a bad light

4. complete. The Kingdom Chronicler WILL NOT write your article. General outlines or incomplete articles will no longer be published.

B. A complete Event Announcement for publication must include:

1. Date of the event (day, month and Common Era year)

2. Times of the event - when the site opens and closes

3. Name of the sponsoring group

4. Location of the site (site name, city, and state), and WRITTEN directions. Maps are optional.

5. Autocrat information: both SCA and legal names, postal address, and telephone number. An E-mail address is optional, but recommended.

3. If a group is planning to host an event, demo, parade, etc. with equestrian activities, the group must first contact the Kingdom Equestrian Marshal who will coordinate with a local Equestrian Marshal to order insurance and coordinate activities with the local seneschal and autocrat. The Kingdom Equestrian Marshal must be contacted in any case. During the event, a warranted Equestrian Marshal must be present at all times and additional Equestrian Insurance from the SCA must be in force.

4. If InterKingdom Equestrian Competitions (IKEQC) are held, they must be in accordance with the IKEQC rules which are available from the Kingdom Equestrian Marshal.

5. Kingdom and Society Equestrian Marshal Regulations are available from the Kingdom Equestrian Marshal.

G. POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM MINISTER OF THE LISTS

1. Local Ministers of the Lists shall report at least quarterly to the Kingdom Minister of the Lists. Reports should include results of any tournaments, with verification that memberships and fighting authorizations were duly checked.

2. Anyone who intends to enter any tournament must be prepared with their SCA membership card and their fighting authorization card. These are to be presented to the Lists officer in charge at every tournament. If the fighter's SCA membership card is not a blue card, then that fighter must also sign a waiver in order to participate in the tournament.

3. The Kingdom List Officer's handbook is available from the Kingdom Minister of the Lists.

XIV. POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM CHIRURGEON

A. The Chirurgeons' Guild is the name of the first aid organization in the Kingdom of the Outlands. An active member of the Chirurgeons' Guild is known as a Chirurgeon. Active members of the guild are those individuals who meet all requirements of membership, possess all required knowledge, perform all duties, and for whom there is a signed, valid warrant.

B. The purposes of the Outlands Chirurgeons' Guild include:

1. Providing first aid at events held in the Outlands or at which a large number of the populace are in attendance (wars).

2. Facilitating the training of apprentices in the application of modern first aid in the setting of the SCA.

3. Assisting the marshallate to ensure a safe environment for fighting by advising marshals of injuries caused by or related to fighting.

4. Promoting safety among the populace at large.

C. Membership in the guild is established by the granting of a warrant as a chirurgeon at large or by being accepted an apprentice of the guild. The following are the minimum requirements for membership in the guild:

1. Current first aid or higher certification

2. Current cardiopulmonary resuscitation certification

3. Current SCA membership

4. Legal age of majority as determined by the Chirurgeons' state of legal residence

5. Successful completion of an observation period

D. Non-combatant's authorization cards for chirurgeons will be issued by an authorizing marshall upon presentation of proof that an individual is a chirurgeon. Authorization cards are only necessary when chirurgeons have a bona fide need to be in an active combat environment (that is, war scenarios).

1. Each chirurgeon must be familiar with mundane standards, regulations, responsibilities and liabilities of providing first aid in their state of residence.

2. Each chirurgeon should also be aware of the same considerations when providing care in an area located outside their state of residence.

3. Each chirurgeon shall be familiar with the information contained in the Chirurgeon's Handbook, Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (available from the SCA Stock Clerk) and the Outlands Chirurgeon's Handbook (available from the Kingdom Chirurgeon).

4. Each chirurgeon shall have a working knowledge of Kingdom Law and Society rules and regulations concerning arms, armor and combat.

5. Each chirurgeon shall be familiar with current mundane first aid and cardiopulmonary resuscitation practices and how to apply them in the SCA setting.

E. Reporting: Chirurgeons are required to report to the Kingdom Chirurgeon after each event where the individual performs in the capacity of a chirurgeon and no less than quarterly.

F. Removal: A chirurgeon can have his/her warrant permanently suspended for the following reasons:

1. Failure to offer reasonable first aid practices judged against the mundane qualifications of the chirurgeon

2. Inability to or refusal to cooperate with other guild members, the Crown, marshallate, and/or autocrats

3. Failure to fulfill the "duties of a chirurgeon"

4. Removal of a warrant will be done according to the guidelines provided in the SCA Handbook for the Chirurgeons' Guild.

G. The Kingdom Waterbearers' Guild will operate under the guidance of the Chirurgeon's Guild. The purpose of the guild is to provide waterbearer support in a safe and effective manner at events held in the Outlands or at which a large number of the populace are in attendance (wars).

H. The head of the Waterbearers' Guild shall:

1. Maintain the Kingdom records for the guild
2. Establish training requirements for waterbearers
3. Appoint sufficient waterbearer coordinators in each geographic area to support the needs of the populace
4. Be a paid member of the SCA
5. Report monthly to the Kingdom Chirurgeon and quarterly to the Corporate Water Bearers Coordinator.

I. Waterbearer coordinators are responsible for training and coordinating waterbearers at events. Waterbearers serving on the field must be at least 16 years of age. Waterbearers under the age of 16 may serve in a support status off the field.

We plan to give the Kingdom of the Outlands _____% of the profits from the event.

We understand that fundraisers to benefit the Kingdom are encouraged and are considered separate from the profits of the event.

We understand that the Crown must approve all scheduling (including court) during the event or the Crown's designated representative. We will schedule Peer Circles and Kingdom Officers meetings as requested by the Crown and Kingdom Seneschal. Unless otherwise indicated, each group will require a minimum one-hour meeting in a "private" area.

We understand that the autocrat or a royal liaison will work with the Crown or the Crown's designated representative in arranging accommodations, etc. during the event. We also understand that the Crown will need to have a private area in which to hold meetings or simply relax.

We realize that more crash space is needed for Kingdom Events than for most local events. For non-camping events, we will provide sleeping accommodations through members' homes or possible discounts/arrangements at nearby motels, etc. A list of possible hotels and phone numbers is always helpful.

If our bid is accepted, we understand that it is our group's responsibility to meet the deadline for submitting and event article to the Kingdom Chronicler for publication in the Outlandish Herald. A copy of this form should accompany the article.

CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE AND RELEASE LIABILITY

I, the undersigned, do hereby state that I wish to participate in activities sponsored by the international organization known as the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., a California not-for-profit corporation (hereafter "SCA").

The SCA has rules which govern and may restrict the activities in which I can participate. These rules include, but are not limited to: Corpora, the By-laws, the various kingdom laws and the Rules for combat related activities.

The SCA makes no representations or claims as to the condition or safety of the land, structures or surroundings, whether or not owned, leased, operated or maintained by the SCA.

I understand that all activities are VOLUNTARY and that I do not have to participate unless I choose to do so. I understand that these activities are potentially dangerous or harmful to my person or property, and that by participating I voluntarily accept and assume the risk of injury to myself or damage to my property.

I understand that the SCA does NOT provide any insurance coverage for my person or my property. I acknowledge that I am responsible for my safety and my own health care needs, and for the protection of my property.

In exchange for allowing me to participate in these SCA activities and events, I agree to release from liability, agree to indemnify, and hold harmless the SCA, and any SCA agent, officer or SCA employee acting within the scope of their duties, for any injury to my person or damage to my property.

This Release shall be binding upon myself, successors in interest, and/or any person(s) suing on my behalf.

I have read the statements in this document. I agree with its terms and have voluntarily signed it. I understand that this document is complete unto itself and that any oral promises or representations made to me concerning this document and/or its terms are not binding upon the SCA, its officers, agents and/or employees.

I UNDERSTAND THAT THIS IS A LEGAL DOCUMENT. I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTOOD THIS RELEASE AND I UNDERSTAND ALL ITS TERMS. I EXECUTE IT VOLUNTARILY AND WITH FULL KNOWLEDGE OF ITS MEANING AND SIGNIFICANCE.

MINOR'S CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE AND HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT

_____(hereafter referred to as "the minor")
Print Minor's Legal Name

does hereby state that the minor wishes to participate in activities sponsored by the international organization known as the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., a California not-for-profit corporation (hereafter "SCA").

The SCA has rules which govern and may restrict the activities in which the minor can participate. These rules include, but are not limited to: Corpora, the By-laws, the various kingdom laws and the Rules for combat related activities.

The SCA makes no representations or claims as to the condition or safety of the land, structures or surroundings, whether or not owned, leased, operated or maintained by the SCA.

The minor's parent(s) or guardian(s) understand that all activities are VOLUNTARY and that the minor does not have to participate. It is understood that these activities are potentially dangerous or harmful to the minor's person or property, and that by participating, the minor's parent(s) or guardian(s) voluntarily accepts and assumes the risk of injury to the minor or damage to the minor's property.

It is understood that the SCA does NOT provide any insurance coverage for the minor's person or property; and minor's parent(s) or guardian(s) acknowledge that they are responsible for the minor's safety and the minor's own health care needs, and for the protection of the minor's property.

In exchange for allowing the minor to participate in these SCA activities and events, the minor by and through the undersigned, agrees to release from liability, agrees to indemnify, and hold harmless the SCA, and any SCA agent, officer or SCA employee acting within the scope of their duties, for any injury to the minor's person or damage to the minor's property.

This Release shall be binding upon the minor, the parent(s) or guardian(s), any successors in interest, and/or any person(s) suing on the minor's behalf.

The minor's parent(s) or guardian(s) understand that this document is complete unto itself and that any oral promises or representations made to them concerning this document and/or its terms are not binding upon the SCA, its officers, agents and/or employees.

PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN MUST SIGN BELOW:

I, the undersigned, state that I am the parent or legal guardian of the minor whose name appears above. I understand that the above terms and conditions apply to said minor and to myself. I further understand that said minor cannot participate under ANY circumstances in armored martial arts, any combat-related activities, combat-archery, or fencing without parental consent where such participation is allowed by kingdom law. The minor will not be able to participate in any SCA activities without entering into this agreement. This document is binding on myself, the said minor and any person suing on behalf of said minor.
